Re: HHS-CCDF CRRSA: Use of Funds- Child Care and Development Fund (CCDF)
Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2021 (CRRSA)
Funds

The Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservation is operating its CCDF program under a P.L. 102-477 Plan and intends to provide the following services in accordance with its approved 477 Plan and policies, as applicable.

Direct Child Care Services (Subsidies)

• Does the lead agency plan to use CRRSA funds to provide direct childcare services, including childcare subsidy assistance to health care sector employees, emergency responders, sanitation workers, farm and other food service workers, and/or other workers deemed essential or frontline during the response to coronavirus? If yes, describe.

The Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservation will explore the possibility to use the CRRSA funds to provide direct childcare services including, but not limited to:

- o Childcare subsidy assistance to health care sector employees
- o Emergency responders
- o Sanitation workers (janitors)
- o Farm and other food service workers
- o and/or other workers Tribal or Public organization workers deemed essential or frontline staff during the response to coronavirus

The current 477 Plan may need to be amended to include these services.

Implementation of Virus Mitigation Policies and Practices

Does the lead agency plan to use CRRSA funds to provide resources, supplies, and/or technical assistance to childcare providers to support implementation of health and safety practices and policies in line with guidance from State and local health departments and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)?

If yes, describe. Additional guidance is needed to finalize plans. The Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservation 477 Program has not decided how to implement the CRRSA funding in this area, and will work DWD as additional guidance is needed.

The Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservation 477 Program will use CRRSA funds to purchase and provide resources for the following, but not limited to:

- o Resources and equipment for its Child Care Centers;
- o Supplies;
- o Technical Assistance to childcare employees and providers to support implementation of health and safety practices and policies in line with guidance from State and local health departments and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

Grants or Assistance (Other than Subsidies) to Stabilize Child Care Providers

• Does the lead agency plan to use CRRSA funds to support the stability of the childcare sector to help childcare providers (program facilities and workforce) pay for increased operating expenses during the COVID-19 public health emergency? If yes, describe.

The Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservation 477 Program will explore the use of CRRSA funds to, but are not limited to:

- o Support the stability of the childcare sector to help childcare providers (program facilities and workforce) pay for increased operating expenses during the COVID-19 public health emergency

The Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservation 477 Program will follow the approved plan and any approved tribal policy that is applicable.

Assistance to Providers Not Participating in the Subsidy System Prior to the Pandemic

• As required in CRRSA, how does the lead agency plan to use a portion of funds appropriated in CRRSA to provide assistance to CCDF-eligible childcare providers not participating in the subsidy system prior to the COVID-19 public health emergency?

The Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservation 477 Program will follow their approved 477 Plan and Tribal Policies and procedures in providing services to CCDF eligible providers.

Other

• Does the lead agency plan to use a portion of CRRSA childcare funds for any other activities or assistance not described above? If yes, describe.

The Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservation 477 Program approved 477 Plan and Tribal policies and procedures will be used to determine eligible expenses other than what is determined in the above statements.

The Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservation has determined the funds will be used for construction, a Construction/Renovation application will be sent in no later than July 1, 2021
